Miss Cordie E. Yocum and Mr. William Downing United in Marriage—Death of Morris Greenburg.

Buechel, March 9.—The wedding of Miss Cordie E. Yocum and Mr. William Downing, both of Buechel, will be solemnized Thursday, March 12, at one o'clock p. m., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Yocum. The only attendants will be Mr. and Mrs. Felix Jennings, relatives of the bride.

Mrs. Lewis Simcoe was hostess at a dinner party given Monday evening in honor of Miss Minnie Ayres, of Deer Park, who leaves this week for Chicago to attend the Art Institute.

Mrs. Henry Walbridge entertained Tuesday afternoon and evening a number of young people in honor of her little daughter, Vena. Those present were Misses Margaret E. Williams, Edna Williams, Ora and Fannie Baker, Pauline and Mona D. Hicks, Sadie Finley, Lorraine Miller, Emma Yocum and Vena Walbridge, and Masters Dewey and Herbert Yocum. All report an excellent time.

A kaleidoscopic show was given at the Fern Creek schoolhouse Friday and Saturday evenings, entitled "A Trip Around the World." Large crowds attended.

Morris Greenburg, son of Mr. Jake Greenburg, the pawnbroker and turfman, died of tuberculosis at 6 o'clock Friday evening, at the family residence here. His health had been declining for the last three years and he had been seeking relief in the South and West the first two years of his illness. The past year he had spent in Jefferson county. A brother of the deceased, Louis Greenburg, of Hot Springs, Arkansas, was notified will reside at the telegraph and Arsan.

Beautiful funeral was in Cave Hefelich and left last week for Rio Hart county, to purchase a horse. He will return home this week and begin farming on his place here.

Miss Della Standiford has begun studying elocution under the instruction of Miss Bettie Lewis in Louisville.

A large number of friends of Miss Sadie Skiles gave her a party in honor of her birthday, March 7. Games were played and refreshments were served at 10 o'clock. Among those present were Misses Elsie Scay, Gertrude Hikes, Rosa Christen, Mabel Frederick, Sophia Nott, Kathryn Craft, Elizabeth Skiles, Dorothy Skiles, Della Standiford, Nancy Maddox, Sadie Skiles, Margaret Drivers and Emma Whistler, Messrs. Edward Whistler, Henry Mitchell, Albert Driver, Wm. Hornback, Guy Mills, Ben Tyler, Fielding Frederick, Henry Craft, Fred Standiford, Louis Thixton, Fred Gray, W. Schad, Thos. Skiles, Jr., and Russell Scay.

Mardi Gras Celebrated at Mr. Matt Brady's.

The Stork Has Been Busy During the Past Week.—The Jeffersonian An Incentive For All To Do Better.

March 7.—The saints were out in all their glory celebrating Mardi Gras at Mr. Matt Brady's Indiana gallanting the modest shepherdess and dower girl. Miss May Belle Rudy was more interesting than ever as a young widow. The impressive Sam Ewing, almost brought down the house with applause, as a negro cake walker. The hit of the evening was the appearance of "Rustic Reuben," no one ever guessing his name until supplied by the host. Mr. Brady has been distributing "little folks" quite liberally this week. We can compare favorably with any community in this line, however far behind we may be in the past—Veritable Rooseveltian and everyone welcome.

Miss M. S. K. Wise, formerly Miss Maud Simcoe, and son, have returned to Mrs. Wise's old Kentucky home to live, after several years absence in New Madrid, Mo. We extend a hearty welcome to them from many relatives and friends.

The R. F. D.'s, are like Moses on Mt. Pisgah, hung here between two electric lines—here 'em, but can't see 'em; and can't get to them, either more than three or four times a year. Would anything be more tantalizing? When you do try to catch a car it's a trying ordeal! Such rushing! the pins and hairpins as like they are possessed by the time you are jammed together. Somehow you feel like a locomotive at the limit steam gauge. O. G. Whiz! It's such a comfort to call your name when our patience is frustrated. Then if you miss the home car pandemonium is let loose. Let us draw the veil; some things I can't tell, even you.

Our "Store" is our comfort. You can buy anything at Nachard's from a pin to a piano, at the lowest price. We are independent folks. It's a special treat to go there and be welcomed in their neighborly style. We all avail ourselves of every opportunity to be with them. Indeed we are great big "B" is beyond words, a most interesting volume, but how infinitely more impressive is the actual presentation of these deeds set down. The series of word pictures pertaining to Christ's life in this dramatization are most ably selected from the novel by William Young, but the play is by no means a picture of the life of the Redeemer. The salient earthly points of the novel, not the strictly religious, are what the dramatist has seized upon, and for that reason "Ben-Hur" is full of common interest regardless of belief or creed.

Art and invention joined hands in making Klauw a Erlanger's new and greater production a masterpiece. The thrilling interest of the story is intensified by the wonderful mechanical contrivance which make possible the presentation of such striking incidents as the chariot race with the eight fiery steeds, the sinking of the Roman galley and the rescue, the appearance of the Star of Bethlehem, the vision in the Vale of Hinnom and the miracle on the Mount of Olives. The character of General Wallace's mighty biblical romance is thoroughly maintained notwithstanding the magnitude of the scenic settings.

Keen interest is centered in the staging of "Ben-Hur" at Macaulay's Theatre for three nights, March 16, 17, 18, and a special matinee performance next Wednesday, March 18. John T. Macaulay, manager of Macaulay's Theatre, will give special attention to orders for seats through the mail, providing remittance accompanies same. Seats will be placed on sale today, March 12.

Somerset Journal: Strong denunciation of poor, deluded Lillard at Danville, though deserved, is not well advised unless the other unmentionable traitors come in for a share of ignominy. Four 'scape goats are insufficient to bear away the political sins of the many engaged in the betrayal of the Kentucky Democracy. The law of conspiracy holds everyone engaged, responsible for results.

Owensboro Inquirer: It is plain that the Democrats charge their defeat up first, to the prohibition forces in the general election, and second to the whisky interest in the Legislature. The whisky interest can credibly victory to the support the prohibition sources gave the Republicans in the November election. The Republicans get the pie; the prohibitionists the experience and the Democrats what the little boy shot at.

Somerset Journal: Mark this counter prediction: Former Governor Beckham will be the champion of the coming Democratic State Convention, and will be a delegate from the state at large to the National Democratic convention; he will be Speaker of the House in the next Legislature; he will decline a position in the cabinet of President W. J. Bryan to accept the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky, and he will be elected to that office in 1910.

Lexington Herald: One of the results of the election of Governor Bradley as Senator by the solid vote of the Republicans and the vote of four men elected as Democrats, will be that Governor Beckham will not again be a potent influence in Kentucky politics.

Springfield Sun: Beckham consented to withdraw from the race, and also promised to do all in his power to elect a responsible Democrat that the bolters would name, but they rejected his offers and turned a deaf ear to his entreaties. The fact is, that nefarious and damnable trade was made before the Legislature convened.

Elizabeth News: The Democratic ball had better be wiped clean in Kentucky and begin all over again.

SEARCHING

For Missing Relatives From Whom He Has Been Separated For Twenty-seven Years—Can Not Find Brother or Sister.

Buechel, March 10.—Clarence Williams, of Buechel, is searching for missing relatives from whom he has been separated for twenty-seven years. He and his wife and sister were left orphans when very young. One brother died and three were placed in an orphanage at Bardonia and the sister, Eliza, was sent to a Catholic school, where she was to be trained to become a Nun. Mr. Williams, who is the eldest of the children, can not find any trace of the one brother supposed to be living or the sister. Their parents were John and Jennie Williams, but the father does not remember exactly where they lived.

PRESTONIA

With only nineteen more days remaining for the subscribers of The Jeffersonian to name the most popular lady in the county, it is very necessary that the friends of the young ladies who are trying for this honor to get to work. And they are working, too. The contest seems to be between five of our most popular young ladies, and it is a difficult matter to determine to whom the handsome prizes will be awarded.

REMEMBER

That a $75.00 Diamond Ring will be given as first prize; Solid Gold Watch as second and a beautiful Brooch set with a genuine diamond and pearls as third.

That 100 votes are given with each $1.00 paid on subscription.

That you may subscribe for ten years if you choose.

That all votes will be counted for whom they are cast.

That votes are given with subscriptions only.

That you can not buy votes.

That the contest closes Tuesday evening, March 31, at 5:30 o'clock; no votes shall be counted after that time.

HARROD'S CREEK

DURRETT LANE

Extending From Preston Street Road To Poplar Level Pike To Be Picked—Order Of The Fiscal Court.

The residents near Prestonia, have succeeded in getting the Fiscal Court to pick the Durrett Lane. This lane is more than a mile in length, extending from Preston Street Road to the Poplar Level Pike, and is thirty feet in width. When the lane is picked, it will add much to the value of the land and the gardeners will be able to get to the land more easily. The lane was originally given as a passway to the Phillips cemetery by Mr. Samuel Phillips, the father of Mrs. S. P. Durrett.

HIGH VIEW.

March 5.—Mr. James Robinson is very sick. His children are all at his bedside.

Mr. Elmer Risinger, of Highland Park spent last Sunday with his parents here.

Mrs. Ethel Gray entertained last Sunday, Mr. William Gray and wife.

Mrs. Elton Risinger, Mrs. Mattie Maple and little son, Connelia Vernon.

Miss Virginia Mae Hornback has returned home after a pleasant visit to her aunt, Mrs. Flora Hornback.

Mrs. George Grey spent the day Sunday with her brother, Jacob Goben.

Mr. William Risinger entertained at dinner Sunday Miss Sada, Belle and Mabel Grey.

Martin Risinger bought a fine cow with twin calves for Mr. Mogan.

Mrs. Bettie Kyser is very sick at this writing.

Mr. Bill Covert has rented his Mother's farm for the coming year and all persons are warned, there will be no trespassing allowed and if there is Bill says there will be trouble.

The little son of Mr. William Hornback, who has been sick all winter with pneumonia and lung trouble, is now able to sit up, but not able to walk yet.

Little Francis Marion Hornback made a short visit to his grandmother's, Mrs. A. L. Hornback, last Sunday.

We are having some trouble at High View school. The children have agreed to disgrace and one little Miss is such a tyrant she has to be conducted to and from school by the trustees.

under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY, March 12, 1908.

At the head of this column will be found a likeness of Thomas Jefferson. Let this be a constant reminder to you that The Jeffersonian will ever take the broad, liberal views and stand for the best interests of the people, as did this great and good man.

The County Unit bill was defeated in the Senate by a vote of 22 to 13. Its defeat is attributed to Senator elect Bradley who did much hard work to bring about the result, and Senator Rives, who was a member of the Committee on Religion and Morals, in whose hands the Measure had been placed; also three Democratic Senators who voted with Senator Rives.

The Democrats out in the state seem to be wrought up to a great pitch about the four bolting—well, we'll stop right here; the postal law forbids language that we would like to use. Is it any wonder that our Senators and Representatives will act traitor and be influenced by a "little" money when they are working to pass a law making it a felony to carry concealed deadly weapon and at the same time guilty of this act themselves? It is said by one who was there that when Bradley's election was announced "that it is looked like there would be trouble, many pistols being in evidence." Can you conceive of anything worse? Democrats and Republicans alike should remember the meeting of the 1908 Legislature and see that all traitors and law breakers are relegated to the rear if they ever offer themselves for office again. When the whisky interests has a man to come from New York to buy legislators we will have men that know how to represent money offered them for base purposes.

J. ROGERS GORE, who was defeated for State Senator from Washington county last November, used his paper, the Springfield Sun, for the cause of local option, and as he puts it, "burnt midnight oil preparing the editorial matter and during the day into the type case like gally slave to prepare for publication day," yet the Anti-Saloon League sent out $300 worth of telegrams to defeat the party of which Mr. Gore is a member. The editor of this paper is a personal friend of Rogers Gore and knows him to be of the highest type of manhood and Christian integrity and commend him for the stand he has taken. The following is clipped from his paper:

"We do not feel that the Anti Saloon League owes us anything for the warfare we waged against barrooms in this county two years ago; that was a fight for principle. An inborn fire of desire burned in our very soul to strike at that thing which hovers over the land as a gigantic monster, striking down American manhood and devastating American homes; and we fought the hardest fight of our life. If it is to be fought over again, we will go into the battle, a veteran of the 'late war,' and God helping us, we will fight to the finish, as loyally as ever soldier fought, for the principle we learned to love in the days of childhood. The only request we will have to make is that we be not patted on the back by the same hands that stabbed us in the dark."

Certainly, the Anti Saloon League owes us nothing except fair treatment and courtesy; and that consideration that is due every man who tries to do his duty."

A BOY'S STUBBED TOE.

He is sore,
Poor boy,
Nevermore
Should we annoy.

He needs a balm
Here and now,
To make him calm;
But oh how?

He cries so loud
And scares us so
That we'll be proud
To ease his toe.

He says bad things
With an awful twang
But he is stings.
As a boomerang.

He, like his name
Is very whirly,
It is a shame
He is so surly.

We can but smile
With pen and ink,
And all the while
We can but think—

There is no harm
In a little fun;
So why alarm
And make us run.

What is the use
To get so mad;
And why abuse
And make us sad.

But we forgive
And hope he may,
Long may he live
And grow quite gray.

ELIZABETH.

THINGS RELIGIOUS.

BY A CHRISTIAN OBSERVER.

Just at present we hear not a little said concerning the need of a class of citizens who understand the meaning of the terms, thrift, enterprise, progressiveness, etc., and who are disposed to embody and exemplify these elements of true citizenship in practical and effective effort to better present conditions material and intellectual. To all of which we give a hearty assent. Now, let me call attention to just this: With a decline in morals there will always be found a decline in those elements of citizenship which make for prosperity. And morality can not long be maintained even in conjunction with strong and positive religious conviction and Christian character. In our zeal for progress then let us not forget the "secret springs" of zeal advancement.

There is a very encouraging and hopeful outlook for increased interest and activity along religious lines in our community. With the Christian Endeavor at the Lutheran church, Epworth League at the Methodist church, the union prayer meetings, which are being held in the various churches of the town, Sunday schools in connection with all the denominations, there is no dearth of organizations affording splendid opportunities for studying the Bible and cultivating the Christian graces, faith hope and charity. In all of these services we should make Christ the central figure thought. Let us study His teaching, imitate His example and love His law, for what He is and what He has done for us.

The Union Prayer Meeting held at Christian church on Wednesday evening was well attended and proved to be a specially interesting service. The subject, "The Breadth of Divine Love," was ably discussed by the brethren.

After all that may be said touching various doctrines and creeds we must confess that religion of the right sort means love.—Do you love God and all men? If so, then you are one of His, and there will be fruitage in your lives that shall tell for good in the world.

"Pure religion and undefiled before God is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world."—James 1:27. In the above text we have an expression of what constitutes both inward and outward religion. Be sure you get religion on the inside and then it will show itself on the outside in words of charity.

The minister who does not shun to declare the whole counsel of God may be unpopular with the people, but he holds a tight grip on the Lord and so long as this is true he is invincible. Paul says, "I can do all things through Him which strengtheneth me," and "Christ says," "Without me ye can do nothing." Let the preachers continue to fight sin both in public and private life and hold up Christ as the only "sure cure" for its deadly contagion.

About the most exasperating thing to a Christian man, who has intelligence as well as piety, is to hear the flimsy and "nonsensical" excuses some persons make for not attending church. A very common one is the "weather was so inclement." And yet the very ones who use this excuse most are also the ones who brave the worst weather when business interests are at stake, or morbid curiosity seeks gratification. And worse still, some pests of society with an inherent and cultivated bent to gossip, will imper their delicate constitutions by wading mud or facing cold rains or wintry blasts with the hope of hearing and adding in the circulation of some incendiary and scandalous report which had its origin in a disordered brain or infamous heart. You say that that means Mr. "So and So." Nay, you're mistaken; it means you, if you are guilty. Now be manly or womanly and frankly state, "I have no real love for the church, my piety is all gone and the church no longer affords pleasure or satisfaction. There is no congeniality there and the gospel is becoming to me a dull and uninteresting theme." Speak, the truth and for conscience' sake quit lying.

BREVITIES

Services At Christian Church.

Rev. N. A. Jones will fill his regular appointment at the Christian church here next Sunday. Everybody welcome.

Services at Presbyterian Church.

Rev. G. C. Overstreet will preach on "Bible Trinites" at the Presbyterian church here next Sunday at 11 a. m. Deacons ordained and installed at Hopewell at 3 p. m. All invited.

Will Wed After Lent.

Buechel, March 10.—John Raque, Jr., son of John Raque, Sr., of Buechel, will be married after Lent to Miss Howke, of near Louisville, at St. Frances church, on the Bardstown road.

Adjudged Insane.

Herman Ernst, an old resident of Buechel, living on the Newburg road, was adjudged insane and sent to the Lakeland Asylum last week for treatment. He is about 80 years old and has been a truck gardener for a long time.

Birth.

Born, to the wife of C. E. Alcock, of Louisville, March 8, 1908, a boy. Mrs. Alcock was formerly Miss Jennie Wootton, who made her home at Mrs. W. T. Buchanan's here a few years ago, and Mr. Alcock is a brother of the editor of this paper.

Elegant Assortment.

We have hundreds of beautiful calendar designs for 1909. You will make a mistake if you do not see them before placing your order. Our prices are the lowest, too. Address The Jeffersonian, or call us over the Cumberland phone.

Removed To Prospect.

Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Palmer, who have occupied the Kline place for some time, removed to the Virgil Snowden place near Prospect yesterday. Dr. and Mrs. Palmer have made many friends while here who regret to lose them.

Yaeger-Glascoe.

Miss Myrtle Yaeger and Mr. Samuel Glascoe were married at the bride's home, near Fisherville, Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. G. L. Courtney, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Artt stood up with them. They will reside at the home of Mr. Wm. Swan.

Beautiful Storeroom.

Hofelich & Lausman, our bustling merchants, have very greatly beautified the interior of their store-room on Market street by having it painted. They now have the prettiest store-rooms in the county and keep a full stock of general merchandise at all times.

Accepts Call To Pastorate.

Rev. W. F. Wagner has accepted the call to the pastorate of the Baptist church here. Mr. Wagner's home is in Georgia, but he is taking a post-graduate course at the Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville. He is a talented young man and a Christian worker and will no doubt do much good for the cause of Christ here.

Finger Broken.

Henry Lausman, formerly of Hikes Point, but now connected with Kentucky School for the Deaf at Danville, met with a painful accident by having his finger broken and badly mashed while at work Thursday morning. He lost considerable blood, owing to the breaking of an artery in hand. His many friends here will regret to learn of the accident.

Union Prayer Services.

The subject, leaders and times and places of the union prayer meetings during the month of March are given below:

Subject for the month: "The Plan of Salvation." March 11: at Presbyterian church: "The Kind of a Savior Man Needs" Phil. 2:6-13.

March 18, at Lutheran church. Mystery of Love and Suffering; Heb. 2:9-18. Leader, Geo. Schneider.

March 25; at Methodist church, subject "The Possibilities of Life," II Cor. 3:3-4, 17, 18. Leader, Prof. R. H. Snively.

Will Organize Saturday.

There will be a special meeting called at Hike's schoolhouse Saturday, March 14, for the purpose of organizing a bank at Buechel. Every enterprising farmer, gardener and fruit grower should be interested. Therefore it is important that all should be present. The promoters have the assurance of the most substantial business men of that neighborhood that a bank will not only pay but will be of material benefit to the community, putting the city-conveniences right at their doors. It will be the means of bringing out-of-town buyers to Buechel, and will be a boon for onions, potatoes and other produce for sale. Do not fail to be present.

Meeting Postponed.

Rev. W. F. Wagner requests us to announce that it will be impossible for him to be here with the young people tomorrow night on account of an engagement to deliver a lecture at Dupont, Ind., at that time, but will be here Friday night of next week and expects all young folks interested in a young people's organization to meet him at the Baptist church at that time for the organization of the B. Y. Y. U.

Old Confederate Dead.

Okolona, March 8.—Mr. Napoleon B. Thompson, aged 82 years, died of a complication of diseases March 4th. Mr. Thompson was a Confederate soldier and leaves a wife and large family of children. He has always lived in this community. But a few days ago his brother, Perry Thompson, an old soldier, died of lung trouble. Both interments were in Pennsylvania Run Cemetery. Rev. J. E. Willis conducted the funeral services.

Celebrates Birthday Anniversary.

Little Miss Margaret Winsor entertained a number of her friends at 6 o'clock dinner last Saturday, the occasion being her eight birthday anniversary. She was the recipient of many pretty and useful gifts. Games were played by the little folks and all expressed themselves as having a good time. Those present were Misses Tyler Blankenshaker, of Fisherville; Charity Combs, of Louisville; Charlotte Howell, Elizabet and Margaret Winsor and Lawrence Emmet Erdman.

Old Fashioned Spelling Match.

Mrs. E. R. Sprowl was the hostess for the Current Events Club on Feb. 27. Instead of a regular program the members participated in an old-fashioned spelling match of sixty years ago. Miss Carrie Hardin acted as teacher and Misses Cecile Semonin and Blanche Combs were the captains. A book was presented to the two (one on either side), remaining standing the longest and the fortunate one were Miss Florence Bryan and Mrs. Viola Howell.

Miss Olivin Owings assisted Mrs. Sprowl in serving dainty refreshments.

Uncle Syrus Fox Brown.

Prestonia, March 10. Uncle Syrus celebrated his 90th birthday anniversary Tuesday, 10th, at Mrs. Sallie P. Durrett's residence. Uncle Syrus' father and mother were born in Culpepper, Va. They were sold to Kentuckians and shortly after coming here, Uncle Syrus was born, he being the seventh child. His father died before Uncle Syrus' birth. He said he often cured many ills, as he was the seventh son and born without seeing his father. Syrus is still very active and can do many little chores about the place for Mrs. Durrett, who has given him a home for a number of years.

Epworth League Reorganized.

The young people from the various churches here have reorganized the Epworth League, and much good work is planned for this organization. A counsel meeting at Miss Pet Wisheart's last Thursday evening was followed by a business meeting at Rev. and Mrs. L. K. May's Monday night. These meetings were well attended and great interest manifested in the work. An installation of the officers will take place at the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and it is hoped that a large congregation will be present. Mr. Lud M. Bryan will deliver an address appertaining to the League work. A young people's Christian organization has long been needed in Jefferson-town and all interested in the work of the Lord should give their encouragement and assistance to these young folks who are making an effort to do something along this line.

Don't Let Him Go.

I noticed in The Jeffersonian some time ago that we are to lose one among the best and most useful men in our community, and I will have to say—and so will every other man who is acquainted with this high and honorable gentleman—that when we lose him we will certainly lose a man who has done his part in trying to beautify and build up our little town. He is a man wide awake and ever ready to grasp the first and every opportunity that may present itself for the benefit of our town and community, and he has tried hard to persuade us all to do the same. But I am afraid that some of us will wake up too late to reap the harvest we would have reaped if we only had been in time and listened to him. It may be, however, that we can persuade him to not go, so let's get busy. Now, you know, there are some people who are a little slow to catch on, and those people will not wake up till after he is gone. They will then see how useful he has been to this community. Those same people will want to know who it is—it's Mr. E. R. Sprowl. H. O. H.

PRIZE WINNERS AT LOUISIANA PURCHASE EXPOSITION.

The above is a photograph of the Morgan Horses, the property of Mr. L. L. Dorsey, the well-known breeder, of Anchorage. The Jeffersonian has just completed a nice job of printing for Mr. Dorsey, he laying the above cut on several handsome posters which he is using for advertising purposes. He is well pleased with the work, and we suggest that you see us in case you need printing of any kind. YOU will be pleased, also—both as to price and workmanship. We are fully prepared for all kinds of printing.
